Dear Diary,

I must be the unluckiest guy in the world! I sat next to Sunny for a whole month at the beginning of the semester. Every day I had time to say something to her. I wanted to ask if she could help me with a question, or maybe to borrow a pen. She didn't say much back to me, but I would get to see that warm smile of hers.

Of course, that all changed in the blink of an eye. Julian couldn't keep quiet during class, so Teacher Browne made us switch seats. Just like that, he was up front and I was changed in the back row.

That's okay, I thought. I'll just play the waiting game. I planned to ask Sunny to add me on Facebook or Instagram before the summer vacation. But then she was absent for the entire final week of class. Where did she go? I'm still not sure. All I know is it's going to be a long summer.
