The cup he won in Alola finally helped him get to join the Pokémon World Cup and challenge all champions from other areas. After several great battles, Ash is facing the last and the top trainer. If he wins, he will be the new world champion! We invited some fans to talk about Ash. Let’s have a look.

Since you asked me sincerely, we can tell you kindly. We met Ash on the first day he left home. We have tried to steal his first and favorite Pokémon, Pikachu, for over a hundred times, but we fail every time. Now Pikachu isn’t just the same willful rat from Dr. Oak’s lab. It has experienced thousands of battles and made us fans of it. We want Ash and it to beat all trainers in the world. Besides, there are still more Pokémon we can steal from Ash. Why not stop focusing only on Pikachu? Am I right, Jessie?

Ash took over and took care of them. Both Sceptile and Lycanroc volunteered to be Ash’s partners. Sceptile is a lizard that controls plants and protects the forests. Lycanroc is a wolf Ash met in Alola and was the MVP to win the champion. All above are nice. Let’s take action after the final game!
