Shh... Be careful. Don't wake this guy up. The Sleeping Morris Show is about to begin! The guy with his eyes closed is a great detective, Mr. Morris. He's so famous because every time before reasoning, he hits the _____ (29) _____ first. People love to watch him solve cases while sleeping. And that's why they call him the Sleeping Morris. Mr. Morris is happy to be like a super star because now he has more and more pretty girl to be his fans.

My name is Conan. I am a 1st grade student in Baker Elementary School. People think I'm the little assistant of Mr. Morris. But in fact, I was a senior high school detective before. I solved more cases myself and was even more famous than Mr. Morris. Don't _____ (30) _____ me, I'm not joking! Few months ago, when I was chasing a case, bad guys hit me and fed me strange pills as poison. Surprisingly, the pills didn't kill me but changed me into a child again!

Mr. Morris kindly let me live with him after that. Thanks to him, I meet a lot more police officers because he was one before and is still working with them very often. This may be a chance to get my senior high life back!

Vaccines are something to prevent people from getting sick. The great scientist, Dr. Kariko, had ideas to make better vaccines. She worked on her idea for many years and finally did a good job. Some people say she saved the world.

Dr. Kariko has a friend, Dr. Weissman. They often worked together, but they always thought in different ways. Dr. Weissman said, "from A to B, I go straight. Kariko goes zigzag and zigzag." That was because Dr. Kariko loves to study many new theories and information and asked herself, "How does this work?" "What does that do?" "Can it help my idea?" "Can we try this?"

These questions helped! Dr. Kariko and Dr. Weissman found the ways to make better vaccines according to her questions and ideas. When COVID-19 came, their work helped scientists make special vaccines fast. Every year, people with great contribution get a Nobel Prize. This year, Dr. Kariko and Dr. Weissman got the Nobel Prize for Medicine! They truly did great things for the world.
