四、閱讀測驗 8% (每題 2 分, 共 8 分)

(一) Have you ever heard about NEETs? Around the world, the number of NEETS young people is on the rise. They don't want to work, or don't choose to stand on their own feet. Take Taiwan for example, in 2022, more than 250,000 young people are NEETs. They live in their parents' houses without working experience or going out to get a job. Studies show that for the past twenty years, NEETs in Taiwan have increased a lot. That's really a big problem. Such young people do not want to make changes to their lives. In fact, most of them have no interest in working at all.

There are many reasons why so many young people become NEETs. It may be because they do not want to take low-level and low-paid jobs, or they are addicted to the Internet. The longer NEETs stay at home doing nothing, the harder they will find a job.

If young people keep living as a NEET, it is possible that they are not going to get married, have their children, or bring money home in the future. It is important to help NEETs go out, find something to do or get a job. We can also teach them more skills and give them more training. This way, they can have a healthier life.
